

PAINTING EXHIBITION AT GOA COLLEGE OF ART

Panaji : February 17, 2017

‘ANVESHANE 2017’, a painting exhibition by students of Mahalasa School of Art, Mangalore will be held at the Exhibition Hall of Goa College of Art, Altinho, Panaji, from February 20 to February 24, 2017.

About thirty paintings by nineteen students will be on display. The genres presented in the group show will encompass folk, tribal, traditional, contemporary life, philosophy, still life and ancient scripts. The budding artists strive to express through a new visual language through their paintings. This exhibition is an Art exchange programme between Mahalasa School of Art, Karnataka and Goa College of Art.

The exhibition will be inaugurated on February 20, 2017 at 3.30 p.m. by eminent Goan artist, Shri Sanjay Harmalkar, Chairperson, Institute Menezes Braganza in the presence of Chief Guest, Shri Babu Rao, Director, Shri Mahalasa Shikshana Samiti, Mangalore and Guest of Honour, Shri M.V. Vengurlekar, Principal, Goa College of Art.

The exhibition will be on view at the Exhibition Hall of Goa College of Art, Altinho, Panaji till February 24, 2017 between 10.00 a.m. and 5.00 p.m.