

IIIE - Goa Chapter organizes 4th Prof. Uday Amonkar Memorial Lecture

Panaji : May 3, 2017

Vaisakha: 13, 1939

Indian Institution of Industrial Engineering (IIIE) - Goa Chapter organized the 4th Prof. Uday Amonkar Memorial Lecture on May 3, 2017. Prof. Uday Amonkar was faculty in the Mechanical Engineering Department of Goa College of Engineering, Farmagudi and was a veteran in Industrial Engineering field in the State of Goa. 3rd May is also the IIIE Goa Chapter foundation day. The Memorial Lecture titled "Contemporary World Politics and the Emerging Global Order" was delivered by Professor Varun Sahni, Vice-Chancellor, Goa University. Professor Sahni spoke on changing world economic and military powers. He also dealt with the current world order and the future scenario developing in a dynamic environment. The event began with the welcome address by Principal Dr. V. N. Shet. Later, a short AV presentation on the life of Prof. Uday Amonkar was screened. Dr. Suraj Rane, Chairman, IIIE-Goa Chapter introduced the guest speaker. On this occasion Dr. A. R. Naik, ex-Head of Mechanical Engineering Department and ex-Principal, Goa College of Engineering was also felicitated. Dr. Vinay Shirodkar compeered the event and proposed the vote of thanks. The lecture was attended and well appreciated by many people comprising of faculty, alumni, students and IIIE members.