

7 DAY TMT FILES EXHIBITION INAUGURATED

Panaji: 19 June 2017

The Directorate of Archives & Archaeology organized a weeklong exhibition of TMT files, comprising information of Indians who participated in Goa's struggle for freedom, at its premises at Rua De Queraim Panaji today. The exhibition was organized to commemorate Goa Revolution Day.

Shri Daulat Hawaldar Secretary Archives & Archaeology in the presence of freedom fighter Shri Naguesh Karmali inaugurated the exhibition and also released a brochure encompassing brief introduction of participants in Goas freedom struggle. He went round the exhibition and evinced keen intrest in the exhibits. The exhibition will remain open for general public from 9.30 am to 5.00pm in the evening for a week.

Shri Hawaldar, while addressing the gathering said that,we need to develop habit of documentation of the events which in the course of the time becomes history and also proves important sources of history. He said he was fortunate to interact with senior citizens and at the same time appreciated the efforts of the organizers for their endeavour to organize the exhibition.

Shri Naguesh Karmali Sr. Freedom Fighter, recalled the memories of freedom struggle movement.As regards to the sufferings of freedom fighters, their sacrifices and stories of injustice, atrocities inflicted by the then Portuguese rulers.

Smt. Blossom Madeira, Director, welcomed and also proposed the vote of thanks.