

COLUMNIST JOGLEKAR PASSES AWAY

Panaji: August 21, 2017

Sravana 30, 1939

Popular Columnist and Ex-Headmaster of Dada Vaidya High School, Curti Ponda and Damodar High School, Margao, Rangunath Vinayak Joglekar, aged 89, resident of Margao passed away today morning after a brief illness. He was popularly known as R. V. Joglekar.

Joglekar was an educationist and he was founder President of Goa Kabaddi Association. He propagated traditional Indian Sports like Kho-Kho, Mallakhamb, Suryanamaskar and Lezim in Goa. He is survived by Wife Smt. Usha and two sons Shri. Sanjay and Sumant.

On behalf of Department of Information and Publicity Shri Siddhesh Samant, Information Assistant placed a wreath on the mortal remains of R. V. Joglekar.