Governor of Goa, Dr. (Smt) Mridula Sinha has extended her greetings to the people of Goa on the occasion of Independence Day of India.

In her message, the Governor has said that Independence Day is a day to pay tribute to the national flag. “When India attained freedom from British rule, the economy of our country remained in very bad shape. However, in last few decades it has progressed well in the field of Infrastructure, Agriculture, and Commerce etc.

India is a country with rich culture and religious diversity; where people value love, peace, and humanity. To make this country a progressive and secure nation we must obey the morals and principles bestowed on us by our great leaders,” states the Governor.

She has appealed the Goans to keep the state as well as the country clean and free from poverty, corruption, terrorism, caste and religious discrimination.
