

CONSTITUTION IS THE SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND: SIMOES

Margao: January 19, 2018

Asserting that the Constitution is the Supreme law of the land from which other laws flow, Assistant Professor and HOD of G.R. Kare College of Law, Smt Maria Gorretti Simoes highlighted the various fundamental rights enshrined in the Constitution of India.

Addressing the gathering at the Constitution Week Celebrations held at Salcete Taluka, at Collectorate, Margao, today, Smt Simoes, underlined the significance of the Constitution explaining the various rights bestowed upon every individual which the citizens of India should be aware of.

Smt Simoes, the resource person spoke on the topic “Constitution made simple for the Common Man” which was attended by Government officials, Sarpanchas, Panchayat Members of Village Panchayats of Salcete taluka, members of NGO’s and school children. The preamble outlines the victory of the people over the rule Smt Simoes said.

The Constitution Week Celebration has been an initiative of the Governor of Goa, Dr (Smt) Mridula Sinha co-ordinated by Directorate of Higher Education and Department of Political Science, Goa University in support with V. M. Salgaonkar College of Law; G.R. Kare College of Law; Department of Panchayat, Education and the Collectorate of North and South Goa which will be held from January 19 to 25, 2018 across the State.

Earlier, the Dy. Collector, Salcete, Shri Paresh Fal Dessai read out the message of the Governor.