

KALA UTSAV BEGINS FROM MARCH 22

March 20, 2018
Phalguna 29, 1939

The Annual Exhibition and Kala Utsav 2018 of Goa College of Art will be held on March 22, 2018 at the central hall of Goa College of Art, Altino, Panaji. Nearly two hundred students will display their annual academic work in fine art, applied art, sculpture, audio visual, photography, portraiture, craft and print making. The skills acquired by the students during the academic year will be seen at this exhibition.

The theme for the Kala Utsav this year is 'Goa Film City'. The students and faculty of the college has worked day and night to make the event a grand success. On the March 23, 2018 a special musical programme is organized for the alumni of Goa College of Art. All the ex students are invited to attend the same, and also interact with the faculty and students and share their ideas. Similarly, on March 24, 2018, a special musical programme will be organized for the parents of the students of Goa College of Art. Parents are specially invited to visit the college to get themselves acquainted with the college and interact with the faculty and students.

'Kala Rang' an internal inter class programme will go on from March 26 to 28, 2018. Various inter culture and artistic competitions will be organized during this three day event. This programme encourages the students to display their hidden talents in other forms of arts such as dance, drama, music etc.

The annual exhibition will be open to the public till April 6, 2018 (except Sundays) from 10.30 am to 5.00 pm. Principal Shri Mahesh V. Vengulekar has requested all the school and college students to visit this exhibition and appreciate the work presented by the students. The exhibition will also enlighten the visitors on the magnitude of art work produced by the students of the college in this academic year.
