

NCC GIVES STUDENTS ALL ROUND DEVELOPMENT: GOVERNOR

Panaji, March 13, 2018

Phalguna 22 , 1939

“The NCC (National Cadet Corps) teaches cadets things that go beyond the school and college curriculum. It lays emphasis on the all-round development of a student,” said Dr. (Smt.) Mridula Sinha, Governor of Goa at a felicitation function in Raj Bhavan, of cadets from Goa who participated in the Republic Day Parade held in New Delhi on January 26, 2018.

The Governor added, “The NCC teaches us to live within our means. This in itself is a big learning experience. The aim of the NCC is to encourage discipline in society.” Recalling her days as an NCC cadet, the Governor said, “I picked up several small good habits which have helped me in my life.”

The Governor further said that there should be attempts to increase the number of NCC cadets in Goa. The Governor thanked the parents for encouraging their children to join the NCC.

The names of the cadets who were felicitated include-Akash Singh (MES College, Zuarinagar), Breznev Guarda (Chowgule College, Margao), Rohit R Pagui (Damodar College, Margao), Prashob R (MES College, Zuarinagar), Sejal Mardolkar (DM’s College, Mapusa), Frazier J Vaz (Loyala High School), Purshattam Narvekar (Damodar College, Margao), Shreya Naik (St. Xavier’s College, Mapusa), and Shalaka Savaikar (Government College, Sanquelim). Frazier J Vaz (Loyala High School) is the first cadet selected to participate in the parade in New Delhi from the Junior Division in Goa after a gap of 13 years.

Present on the occasion were military officers, government representatives, parents of the NCC cadets, principals and Associate NCC Officers (ANOs) of the cadets among others.
