

GOA CENTRAL LIBRARY CELEBRATES LIBRARIANS' DAY

Panaji, August 9, 2018
Sravana 18, 1940

“Librarians must adhere to the principles led by Dr. Ranganathan and work to imbibe ‘reading culture’ in people around them. A librarian is the best guide an amateur reader can have to connect him/her with books,” stated Minister for Art and Culture Shri. Govind Gaude. The Minister was speaking at the annual ‘Librarians’ Day’ function organized by Directorate of Art and Culture and Krishnadas Shyama Goa State Central Library at the Multipurpose Hall of Directorate of Art and Culture, Sanskruti Bhavan, Patto, Panaji today.

Director, Directorate of Art and Culture Shri. Gurudas Pilerkar and Curator of Goa State Central Library, Dr. Carlos Fernandes were present on the occasion. ‘Goa- Library and Information Science Convention 2018 (GOA-LIS)’, with a theme ‘Reshaping of Libraries with Emerging Global Technology and Trends for Libraries’ was also organized on the occasion; wherein 21 librarians from Goa and other states presented Research papers.

While speaking further, the Minister appreciated the Curator and staff of Goa State Central Library and urged them to keep up the good work. “The State Central Library is one of the oldest Institutions in Goa and one of the largest hubs of knowledge in the country. The dedication, contribution, hard work and determination of the staff will help in making this library Asia’s biggest,” the Minister said.

“Librarians can play a pivotal role in connecting the globe intellectually. There is a need to start a Library Movement, and it must begin from villages in Goa. A Model Library can take this movement at a next level,” the Minister opined. He also urged the librarians to create interest in people about reading books and work with honesty and sincerity.

“Librarians are friends of the world. Hence, each one of them should share their knowledge with others. If we work with passion, only then shall we progress as a Government,” he told.

Earlier, the program began with lighting the lamp. Dr. Carlos welcomed the gathering while Shri. Pilerkar spoke about the significance of Librarian’s Day.

The Minister later released the ‘Annual Report 2018 of State Central Library’ and four other books namely ‘West Cost Time’- compiled by Dr. Carlos Fernandes and Smt. Kanaka Swamy, ‘Tiatr Machi-Vol. II’ compiled by Dr. Carlos Fernandes, Shri. Prashant Phadte and Ms. Vinda Gadekar, ‘O GLOBO- Periodical Alphabetical Article Index (1968-1977) compiled by Smt. Maria Ana Paiva and Smt. Sneha SP Malkarnekar and ‘Goa-LIS 2018’ Peer Research paper magazine.

Shri. Satish Narvekar compered the program while Smt. Sulaksha Kolmule proposed the vote of thanks. Librarians from schools, colleges, and libraries from in and around Goa attended the program.