

GOVERNOR CALLS FOR BETTER RAPPORT BETWEEN PARENTS AND TEACHERS

July 19, 2019
Asadha 28, 1941

The Governor of Goa Dr. Smt. Mridula Sinha has said that better rapport between Parents and Teachers can help identify the hidden talent among the students which she mentioned can help them to achieve excellence in varied fields and prosper in life.

Addressing the gathering after presenting medals and certificates to 42 students of Indian School Certificate (ISC) and 175 students of Indian Certificate of Secondary Examination (ICSE) at a function of graduation day 2019 of Sharada Mandir School held at Kala Academy in the city yesterday.

Speaking further the Governor said that Teachers are imparting quality education to the students. The dedicated efforts put in by the teachers in imparting education to the students help them to come out with flying colours in the examinations and bring laurels to the institute as well as earn name and fame at state and national level. The students when they pass out from the institution should channelize their energies and contribute to accomplish the vision for new India of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi.

The Governor said it is the healthy sign to note that girls are performing better in all spheres of life. She said now various opportunities are available to girls students and therefore they should come forward to attain greater heights in life. Parents should encourage their wards to participate actively in extra curricular activities rather than devoting and concentrating more in securing 100 percent marks in the examinations.

The Chairman of Sharda Mandir School Shri Dattaraj Salgaonkar opined that one should live in himself or herself to gain confidence in life. He thanked to the parents for reposing faith in the management of the school.

The Governor presented medals besides certificates to those who excelled in Humanities and Commerce stream. Smt. Deepti Salgaonkar vice chairperson graced the occasion.

Smt. Sharmila Umesh Principle welcomed and Shri Oscar

Gonsalves Administrator propose vote of thanks.
