Sravana 7, 1941

Governor of Goa, Smt.Mridula Sinha released a book, titled, "Singapore - Indian Legal System - A Comparative Study", authored by Punjab and Haryana High Court lawyer Shri Harpreet Sandhu at Raj Bhavan, today.

Governor appreciated Shri. Harpreet Sandhu's efforts to undertake research on a comparative study on the legal systems of different nations and authoring a meaningful book.

Shri. Harpreet Sandhu said that recently the Attorney General of India, Shri. K.K Venugopal and Worthy Solicitor General of India, Mr. Tushar Mehta, released the first edition of the said book in New Delhi. In June 2019 the book was launched in the Parliament of Singapore. The book has also been acclaimed by the Singapore Academy of Law and by the High Commissioner of India to the Republic of Singapore.

He informed that the book is being acclaimed at National and International level by the Legal Fraternity and have been placed as a valuable addition in the World's Best Law libraries i.e. Inner Temple, Trinity Hall Cambridge University, Bodleian Law Library, and University of Oxford, United Kingdom.

The book is based on a comprehensive comparative study on the legal and court functioning of different nations with Indian legal system which includes a vibrant view of constitutional and legal functioning in the light of author's global multi-faceted experience gained during his visits to various courts, Shri. Harpreet Sandhu added.

The Punjab based Lawyer also presented the Portrait of Palki Sahib and a monumental replica of Darbar Sahib Amritsar to the Hon'ble Governor of Goa dedicated to the commemorative 550th Birth Anniversary of Guru Nanak Dev Ji.

Shri. Harpreet Sandhu along with his family was present on the occasion.
