“The concept of Underwater Domain Awareness (UDA) will translate to our eagerness to know what is happening in the undersea realm of our maritime areas. This keenness for undersea awareness from the security perspective means defending our Sea Lines and coastal waters,” Chief Minister Dr. Pramod Sawant said while speaking as a Chief Guest during the inaugural of ‘Underwater Domain Awareness program- Summer school Internship 2019’ at Goa University campus today.

The Chief Minister further added that if young India is not channelized into constructive nation-building activities then we may have a serious socio-economic problem to deal with. “Opportunities for young India need serious consideration along with appropriate skilling as well. The human resource with the right skills will be a very critical component to take forward any initiative. Government of Goa will do its best to address the requirement of scientific inputs and human resource pertaining to UDA,” the Chief Minister said.

Vice Chancellor Prof. Varun Sahani, Director NIO Dr. Sunil Kumar, Secretary, National Organizing committee of Vigyan Bharati Shri. Jayant Sahasrabuddhe, Cdr Dr. Arnab Das, Dr. Prasanna Kumar, Rear Admr S.Y. Shrikhande (Retd), and Shri. Prafulla Talera were present on this occasion.

The UDA Internship and Summer camp will be held for students from July 8, 2019, to July 20, 2019, at National Institute of Oceanography, Dona Paula. Earlier, the course was held at University of Mumbai from June 11, 2019, to July 6, 2019.

The function began with lighting the lamp. Prof. Sahani welcomed the gathering while Cdr. Dr. Das briefed about the course. Rear Admr S.Y. Shrikhande and Shri. Jayant Sahasrabuddhe also spoke on the occasion. Shri. Prafulla Talera proposed the vote of thanks.
