

GOVERNOR CONDOLES DEATH OF SHRI ARUN JAITLEY

Panaji: August 24, 2019
Bhadra 2, 1941

Governor Smt. Mridula Sinha has condoled the death of former Union Minister and senior leader Shri Arun Jaitley. In her message, the Governor has said, the entire nation is mourned after losing a very qualified, hard-working, soft-spoken and learned leader today. Arun Jaitley was not only the leader but also a very big lawyer. He used to give directions to people and the youths who used to come to meet him. He used to guide them about how to speak, how to answer the questions and used to teach different kinds of things. He had played a big role in politics for the last few years. He was loved by everyone, the Governor added.

The Governor further said, Such tall leader had played a big role in the developing new India who went away today. May God give strength to his son, daughter, wife and relatives to overcome from this great loss, she added.
