The Election Commission has launched Electors Verification Programme (EVP) from September 1, 2019 to October 15, 2019 for improvement of health of the Electoral Roll enrolment of all eligible citizens during Special Summary Revision, 2020 by verification and authentication of elector's details.

The electors are appealed to search and verify their details in the Electoral Roll and indicate corrections in details, if any, including photograph and authentication of entry. The details of family members can also be verified following portals may be used for verifying the details. 'Voters Helpline' mobile app, NVSP Portal, Common Service Centers (CSCs), Voters Facilitation Centers (VFCs) at taluka Mamlatdar Offices and PwD electors may call Voter Helpline (1950) seeking facilitation.

The verification of details can be done by furnishing copy of valid document such as Indian Passport, driving license, aadhar card, identity card of Govt./Semi Govt. Officials, Bank Pass book and Farmers Identify card.
