Panaji, September 24, 2019
Asvina 2, 1941

The Goa College of Art will sign MOUs with five institutes which include Sir J. J. School of Art- Mumbai, Sir J. J. Institute of Applied Art-Mumbai, Mahalasa College of Visual Art-Mangalore, Entertainment Society of Goa and others on September 26, 2019 at the college premises. The MOUs will be signed by the designated authorities of the respective institutions in the presence of the Chief Minister of Goa Dr. Pramod Sawant, Minister for Art and Culture Shri Govind Gaude and other dignitaries. The MOUs will facilitate exchange of schemes and skills between students, faculty and personnel of the respective institutions.

The objective behind signing MOUs to further expand the scope of art education and to initiate the students into the industry setup, and further to expose the students to art education methods in other colleges in other states.

The MOUs will further be instrumental in facilitating teaching-learning exchanges between the institutions and will help in further enhancing the quality of art education in the country to enable the exposure of the students' community to the industry which they will be a part of as soon as they graduate from the college. In turn, the industry will also benefit by getting a more skilled workforce in the field of art related industry namely advertising, publishing, film, theatre, painting, Mural Art, Portraiture, Sculpture, Electronic and Social Media and other allied fields.

An exhibition of art work by present students and from the archives will be on display in the central hall of Goa College of Art to showcase the work done by the college students. The exhibition will be on view till October 4, 2019 so that the public at large will get to see the academic work done by the students of Goa College of Art.
