Proceeding No. 227/2014

Inquiry Report

The Complainant was working as a primary teacher of Lions KG and Primary School at Jaycee Nagar, Ponda-Goa. The Complainant was due for retired from service after superannuation in the month of January, 2013. However, her services were extended till the end of April, 2013. The grievance of the Complainant is that there was inordinate delay in payment of terminal benefits. According to the Complainant, the Respondent No. 1/Lions KG and Primary School is responsible for the delay in payment of her pension and other pensionary benefits. She claims interest on the delayed payment and has also claimed compensation as the Complainant had to undergo financial difficulty, mental agony and physical harassment.

2. The Complainant has indicated the delay on various heads as under:

- i) Provident Fund Rs. 5,20,000/- (interest on the amount of PF for one year—Rs. 52,000/-).
- ii) Gratuity Rs. 3,57,570/- (interest on the amount of Gratuity for 1 & ½ years delay is Rs. 53,635/-).
- iii) Pension amount Rs. 2,90,864/- (interest on the amount of pension if Rs. 23,263/- upon delay of 18 months).
- iv) Commutation Rs. 3,70,107/- (interest on the amount of commutation Rs. 55,516/- upon the delay of 1 & ½ years).
- v) Leave encashment for 180 days Rs. 2,40,000/- (interest on the amount of leave encashment of Rs. 42,000/- upon delay of 1.5 years).
- vi) Extension pay of 3 months Rs. 75,000/- (interest on the above amount of Rs. 13,125/- upon delay and being not received for one year).

3. This Commission issued notices to 1) Headmaster, Lions KG and Primary School at Jaycee Nagar, Ponda-Goa, 2) Director of Education, Porvorim-Goa and 3) Director of Accounts, Panaji-Goa. The Respondents have filed their respective replies separately. The Complainant has filed Rejoinder to the reply of Respondent No. 1. The Respondent No. 1 has also filed Sur-Rejoinder.

4. We have heard the Parties. We have also perused the records of this case.

5. Admittedly, there is inordinate delay in processing the pension and pensionary benefits of the Complainant. The Respondent No. 1 blames the Complainant herself for delay in processing the pension papers. The Respondent No. 1 has stated that the Complainant was in charge of school for the period from August, 2006 to April, 2009 and inspite of that the Complainant did not complete her Day Book and other papers which were supposed to be completed by her and the Complainant also did not submit papers such as Medical Fitness Certificate while joining. It is further stated that the Complainant did not sign her retirement papers in time since she was expecting further extension of service. The Respondent No. 1 has also stated that the pension papers which were submitted to Central Education Zone were returned from time to time with several observations which were complied by Respondent No. 1. In short, according to Respondent No. 1, there is no negligence on the part of Respondent No. 1 but the settlement of pension was delayed on account of the fault of the Complainant to complete her Service Book and other related papers.

6. As per the reply filed by Respondent No. 2/ Director of Education, the pension case of the Complainant was received on 02-07-2013 and the pension papers were submitted to Directorate of Accounts on 08-07-2013. However, the pension papers were returned back by Directorate of Accounts on 23-08-2013 for compliance of observations raised by Pension Cell of Director of Accounts which were in turn returned to the School for compliance of the observations. The Respondent No. 3 has stated that the pension case of the Complainant was received for the first time on 08-07-2013 and it was immediately scrutinised and the same was returned on 23-08-2013 for compliance of the observations raised. The Respondent No. 3 has further stated that again the pension papers had to be returned twice vide letter dated 21-01-2014 and 27-03-2014 for non-compliance of observations raised earlier. The pension papers were finally received for the fourth time from Respondent No. 2 by letter dated 24-04-2014 and the same was finalized and the authorisation of pension and other retirement benefits were intimated to the Complainant vide letter dated 04-06-2014 under Pension Payment Order No. T-4589. According to the Respondent No. 3 there was no delay on the part of the Respondent No. 3 for payment of pensionary benefits to the Complainant.

7. The records indicate that there was inordinate delay in payment of pension and pensionary benefits to the Complainant. The Complainant cannot be wholly held responsible for this inordinate delay. It was the duty of the School Authority to submit the pension papers to the concerned Department six months in advance. The delay in processing the pension papers is mainly on account of negligence on the part of the Respondent No. 1. The main grievance of the complainant is that she is entitled for interest on delayed payment on various heads as discussed above. However, we are not inclined to go into the question of payment of interest to the Complainant. It shall be open to the Complainant to approach the Appropriate Forum in respect of her claim for interest on delayed payment.

8. As far as GPF claim is concerned, the Complainant is entitled for interest on delayed payment as there was no fault on the part of the Complainant. As per Rule-11 (4) of General Provident Fund (Central Services Rules, 1960) and C&A.G.'s decisions, the interest is to be allowed in case delay has occasioned by circumstances beyond the control of the subscriber and purely due to administrative reasons.

9. However, in the facts and the circumstances of this case, we are of the view that the delay in processing the pension file of the Complainant has caused mental agony to the Complainant and the same amounts to infringement of her fundamental right guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution of India and also amounts to violation of her human rights on account of inordinate delay in settling her pension and pensionary benefits. The Complainant therefore is entitled for reasonable compensation on account of delay in settling her pension claim.

We therefore make the following recommendation:

- (i) The Respondent No. 1/Headmaster, Lions KG and Primary School at Jaycee Nagar, Ponda-Goa shall pay compensation of Rs. 15,000/- (Rupees fifteen thousand only) to the Complainant within a period of 60 days.
- (ii) Respondent No. 3/Director of Accounts shall consider Complainant's claim for interest on delayed payment of GPF as per GPF Rules and C&A.G.'s decisions cited above.

During the course of hearing, Shri Chawdikar, OSD, Legal Cell, Directorate of Education brought to our notice that the Complainant has filed an application claiming GPF amount by letter dated 08-01-2014 and that the Directorate of Education had submitted the bill to the Directorate of Accounts by letter dated 26-03-2014.

We, therefore, find that there is no delay in payment of GPF amount to the Complainant.
