(c) a copy of current income tax Clearance Certificate, and

(d) other documents necessary to substantiate the information furnished in Form II as specified in the Schedule.

(4) Every application referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be either personally delivered to the Controlling Authority or sent to him by registered post.

(5) On receipt of the application referred to in sub-rule (1), the Controlling Authority shall after noting therein the date of receipt by him of the application, grant an acknowledgement to the applicant.

(6) If the Controlling Authority finds the application incomplete in any manner as per Rules, shall immediately intimate the applicant of the shortcomings in the application and inform the applicant that the period of sixty days provided for in sub-section (4) of section 7 of the Act shall be considered from the date of receipt of application, complete in all respects.

6. Application for renewal of licence.— (1) Every Agency shall apply to the Controlling Authority for renewal of the existing licence in Forms I and II, in the manner as specified in rule 5 not less than forty-five days before the date of expiry of the period of validity thereof.

(2) On receipt of the application referred to in sub-rule (1), the Controlling Authority shall after noting therein the date of receipt by him of the renewal application, grant an acknowledgement to the applicant.

(3) If the Controlling Authority finds the application incomplete in any manner as per Rules, shall immediately intimate the applicant of the shortcomings in the application and inform the applicant that the period of thirty days provided for in sub-section (2) of section 8 of the Act shall be considered from the date of receipt of application, complete in all respects.

7. Fees for renewal of licence.— (1) Fees for renewal of licence shall be the same as for the grant of a licence thereof.

(2) The fees paid for the renewal of an existing licence shall be non-refundable.

8. Consideration and verification of the application.— (1) On receipt of an application in Form I for verification of the character and antecedents of the applicant and Form II for grant of a new licence or renewal of the existing licence, the Controlling Authority shall make such inquiries, as it considers necessary to verify the contents of the application and particulars of the applicant.

(2) The Controlling Authority shall obtain a no objection certificate from the District Superintendent of Police of the concerned District where the applicant intends to commence the business of Agency. For this purpose, the Controlling Authority will send to him a copy of the application in Form I for verification of the character and antecedents and Form II for grant of a new licence or renewal of the existing licence, as the case may be, and its attachments, for verification and report.

(3) The Controlling Authority shall obtain the reports from the District Superintendent of Police of the concerned District as required under sub-rule (2), within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of a copy of application and its attachments if any.

(4) The District Superintendent of Police in addition to the report mentioned in sub-rule (3), shall also furnish the following information to the Controlling Authority within the time limit as laid down under sub-rule (3) thereof.

(a) Whether the applicant earlier operated any Agency, either individually or in partnership of others and if so, the details thereof;

(b) Whether the applicant possesses any special qualification or skill, which may facilitate his operations of Agency.

(g) Whether the applicant is a registered organization under the provisions of any relevant Statute and

(h) Whether the applicant whose proprietor or a majority shareholder, partner, or director is not a citizen of India.

9. Applicant to be heard.— The Controlling Authority, after receipt of the report under sub-rules (3) and (4) of Rule 8 is not satisfied about the suitability of the applicant and also about the need for granting the licence for the area of operation applied for or renewal of the existing licence, shall give a reasonable opportunity to the applicant/s of being heard.
10. Refusal to issue a new licence or renewal of an existing licence.— (1) The Controlling Authority shall pass an order either refusing the grant of licence or renewal of an existing licence, after making such inquiries as it considers necessary and giving due reasons thereof on which licence is refused within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of application complete in all respects:

Provided that no order of refusal of any licence shall be passed except after giving the applicant a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(2) The Controlling Authority shall intimate to the Superintendent of Police of the respective district about refusal of a licence or renewal of an existing licence thereof, as the case may be, for his information.

11. Grant of licence.— The Controlling Authority shall grant or renew the licence in Form IV, subject to the conditions as specified in the Rules, after compliance of the formalities and satisfying itself about the suitability of the applicant and also the necessity for granting the licence in respect of area as specified under the application therein.

12. Training of the Licensee.— The licensee shall undergo such training in order to make him conversant with the duties and responsibilities of the business of Agency as may be considered by the Government from time to time and specified thereof.

13. Conditions of licence.— Without prejudice to the provisions of section 10 of the Act, the licensee shall be further subject to the following additional conditions, namely:—

(i) The licensee shall intimate the name, parentage, date of birth, permanent address, address for correspondence and the principle profession of each person forming the Agency to the Controlling Authority within fifteen days of receipt of the licence;

(ii) The licensee shall inform the Controlling authority regarding any change in the address of persons forming the Agency and change of management within seven days of such change, as the case may be;

(iii) The licensee shall immediately intimate to the Controlling Authority about any criminal charge framed against the persons forming the Agency or against the private security guard or supervisor engaged or employed by the Agency, in the course of their performance of duties of Agency. A copy of such communication shall also be sent to the officer in charge of the police station where the person charged against resides;

(iv) The licensee shall inform the Controlling Authority full details of any person employed or engaged as a private security guard/supervisor within seven days of his appointment;

(v) The licensee shall ensure imparting of such training and skills to its private security guards and supervisors as specified under the Rules and directed by the Government from time to time thereof;

(vi) The licensee shall employ (a) one supervisor to supervise the work of not more than fifteen private security guards and (b) in case the private security guards are on security duty in different premises and it is not practical to supervise their work by one supervisor, the Agency shall depute more number of supervisors so that at least for every six private security guards, there is one supervisor available for assistance, advice and supervision;

(vii) The licensee shall abide by the requirements of physical standard, training, issue of identity cards, uniforms and badges etc., and other conditions as specified by the Rules for the private security guards and supervisors;

(viii) The licensee shall maintain records of its business as laid down under the Rules;

(ix) The licensee shall produce the records of its business to the Controlling Authority or to such other officers and staff of the office of the Controlling Authority for their inspection as considered to be necessary in discharge of their duties;

(x) The licensee shall exhibit its licence or copy thereof in a conspicuous place of its business;

(xi) The licensee shall, within six months from the date of issue of the licence, commence its activities.

14. Conditions for renewal of licence.— The renewal of the licence will be granted subject to the following conditions, namely:—
(i) The applicant shall continue to maintain his principle place of business in the jurisdiction of the Controlling Authority;

(ii) The applicant shall continue to ensure the availability of the facility for training of its private security guards and supervisors;

(iii) The applicant shall continue to adhere to the conditions of licence;

(iv) The police shall have no objection to the renewal of licence to the applicant.

15. Validity of the licence.— A licence shall be valid for a period of five years from the date of its issue or renewal unless the same is cancelled earlier under sub-section (1) of section 13 of the Act.

16. Verification of character and antecedents.— Before any person is employed or engaged as a security guard or supervisor, the Agency shall satisfy itself about the character and antecedents of such person in any one or more of the following manners—

(i) by verifying the character and antecedents of the person itself,

(ii) by relying upon the character and antecedent verification certificate produced by the person:

Provided that the character and antecedent certificate as specified under the Rules shall be valid if the Agency does not have any adverse report regarding the person's character and antecedents from any other source.

(iii) by relying on the report received from the police authorities signed under the authority of the District Superintendent of Police or any officer of the equivalent or higher rank.

17. Verification of character and antecedents from the police authority.— (1) Any person seeking employment as a private security guard or supervisor and is desirous of getting his character and antecedents verified by the police authority, shall apply in Form V directly to the concerned District Superintendent of Police or any officer of the equivalent or higher in rank by depositing a fee of Rs.100/- or such other fee as fixed by the Government from time to time. If the person has stayed in more than one District during the last five years, the person thereof shall also apply to the concerned Superintendent of Police of Districts.

(2) The District Superintendent of Police or any officer of the equivalent or higher in rank shall verify the character and antecedent of the person and grant a certificate in Form VI to such person within (a) 30 days, if the verification is required within the State; and (b) 90 days, if the verification is required outside the State, from the date of receipt of the application for verification of character and antecedents in Form V.

(3) In case no report is received from the concerned District Superintendent of Police or any officer of the equivalent or higher rank within the time as provided in sub-rule (2), it shall be deemed that there is no adverse observation against his character and antecedents.

18. Verification of character and antecedents.— (1) Any person making an application to any Agency for getting employed or engaged as private security guard or supervisor, shall submit duly filled up Form V to the Agency. If the person has stayed in more than one District during the last five years, the number of Forms will be as many as Districts,

(2) The Agency shall cause an inquiry into the correctness of the particulars filled in either by itself or by sending the Form V to the District Superintendent of Police of the respective District/s as the case may be.

(3) In case the Agency decides to send the Form V to the District Superintendent of Police for availing the service of character and antecedent verification by police, the agency shall deposit the fee of Rs.100/- for such a service or such fee as may be fixed by the Government from time to time.

(4) The police will establish identity of the individual and verify the character and antecedents of the person by making a visit to the locality where the person claims to have resided or residing and ascertain his identity and reputation from the respectable residents of the locality. They will also consult the police station record of the concerned police station and other records at the District Police Headquarter before preparing the character and antecedents verification report. This report will contain the comments of the police on every claim of the person in character and antecedent Form V and also a general report about the activities including means of livelihood in the period of verification. The police will specifically state if there is a criminal case registered against the person at any point of time or if he has ever been convicted of criminal offence punishable with imprisonment.

(5) The police will specifically comment if the engaging or employing the person under verification by the Agency will pose a threat to National Security.

(6) The police authorities shall ensure that character and antecedents verification report is issued to the Agency within (a) 30 days if the verification is required within the State (b) 90 days if the verification is required outside the State, from the date of receipt of the application for verification of character and antecedent in Form V.

(7) The report of the police regarding character and antecedents of a person will be graded as confidential. It will be addressed in named cover to a designated officer of the Agency requesting for verification of character and antecedents.

(8) Character and antecedents verification report once issued will remain valid for three years.

(9) On the basis of police verification and/or on the basis of their own verification, the Agency shall issue in Form VI, a character certificate to the concerned person and this certificate will not be taken back by such Agency even if the person ceases to be the employee of that Agency.

19. Details to be obtained before employing a person as a private security guard or supervisor.—
(1) No agency shall appoint/engage any person as a private security guard or supervisor without obtaining his full details in Form VII.
