The Directorate of Archives and Archaeology has initiated a Lecture Series on various topics pertaining to Archaeological Research and recent discoveries. The basic aim of this initiative is to spread awareness about archaeology and archaeological researches among common people and also to have academic dialogue with experts from the field of archaeology.

The lecture series is titled as ‘Archaeo-Discourse’. This will be organized once a month for a period of 1 year.

The first lecture of this ‘Archaeo-Discourse’ will be by Dr. Anirudh S. Gaur, a well known Marine Archaeologist from Department of Marine Archaeology, National Institute of Oceanography, Dona Paula. The title of the presentation is ‘Maritime Province of Harappan Empire Kachchh and Saurashtra region’.

The lecture will be held at Lecture Hall, Sanskruti Bhavan, Patto on January 31, 2020 at 4.00 p.m. and is open for all history and archeology lovers.
