

GOVT. CLARIFIES ON DEATH OF 68 YEAR OLD LADY

Panaji: March 29, 2020

The Government has clarified that the 68-year-old lady quarantined in the isolation ward of Goa Medical College and Hospital died, but ruled out that it could be death due to COVID-19 infection.

Health Minister Shri Vishwajit Rane confirming death of the lady said that it cannot be called as due to COVID-19 infection as test reports of her samples are still awaited.

The lady complained of respiratory distress, diagnosed with COPD infectie exacerbation and since was shifted to isolation ward to rule out doubts.

She has no travel history of outside Goa,” Rane said.
