GOVERNOR EXTENDS EASTER GREETINGS

Panaji, April 11, 2020.

The Governor Shri Satya Pal Malik has extended warm greetings to the people of Goa, on the auspicious occasion of Easter on April 12, 2020.

In his message the Governor has said, Easter commemorates the glorious resurrection of Jesus Christ, who gave us the eternal and valuable message of love, forgiveness, compassion and brotherhood. In the present day troubled world, afflicted by intolerance, social tension, violence, and health scares, the noble virtues and values embodied by Jesus Christ can liberate human beings from all kinds of sufferings and give them strength to lead a more meaningful, peaceful and wholesome life.

The Governor Shri Satya Pal Malik has further said the entire country is under the lockdown to contain Covid-19 pandemic. I appeal everyone to celebrate the festival and offer prayer from their respective homes without disregarding the social distancing measures.

May the celebrations of Easter this year bring greater peace, happiness, good health and prosperity among the people, the Governor added.
