CIRCULAR

Ref:-Acad/Misc/Exam/2020/1085, dated 03/06/2020

1. In the above referred circular, the Directorate of Education had advised schools to support their students through every possible means including online. The schools were advised to come up with alternatives for students who couldn't participate in online/offline teaching-learning.
2. The online/offline classes conducted by the teachers are meant to engage students and to support them till such time as the schools reopen. On the commencement of regular classes, the teachers will cover up the entire syllabus for the academic year 2020-21, so that no student is left out.
3. Till such time the schools reopen, the teachers should prepare worksheets, lectures etc and reach out to students not connected via online means, in addition to carrying out the online teaching.

Therefore, to facilitate the above, it has been decided that teaching and non-teaching staff of all schools should resume duty in the schools from 24th June, 2020. The managements of all the schools under jurisdiction of this Directorate are hereby informed to ensure that their staff should report to the respective schools with immediate effect.

This however shall not apply to the schools in containment zone, teachers residing in containment zone and schools taken over by the Disaster Management Authority. Further, the employees whose children/ward have benchmark physical and/or intellectual disabilities can be permitted to work from home, provided they remain available on telephone and other online means. Furthermore, the pregnant employees may also be asked to work from home provided they remain available on telephone and other online means.
