GOVERNMENT OF GOA

Department of Co-operation

Office of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies

Order

No. 2021/Circulars/TS II/RCS/52

In recent times Urban Co-operative Credit Societies; Multi-Purpose Societies, V.K.S.S. Societies having Credit Counters and other major societies, for the sake of brevity "these Co-operative Societies", have emerged as unique institutions to serve weaker section with their financial and consumer needs at reasonable terms and conditions.

The 97th Constitution Amendment, which has been relevantly incorporated in the Goa Co-operative Societies Act, 2001 & Rules, 2003, have provided the Co-operative Societies a liberty to function in a democratic, professional and autonomous manner and to be accountable to their members and other share holders. Nevertheless, co-operative societies by virtue of being registered under Goa Co-operative Societies Act, 2001 and Rules, 2003 attains a distant legal entity and as a consequence of the same, faith and trust is build up amongst the general public towards these co-operative societies thereby encouraging them to be associated with these societies either by willingly investing their deposits or by availing loan or by selling their produce or by purchasing their consumer requirements and as such the interest of these members needs to be secured by issuing necessary directives.

Therefore, to secure proper management of the business of these societies and to prevent the affairs of these societies being conducted in a manner detrimental to the interest of the members, depositors and the creditors thereof, the Government by exercising the powers under
