

CHOKHA RAM GARG FELICITATED

Panaji, May 18, 2022

The Secretary for Cooperation, Shri Chokha Ram Garg, IAS, who has been transferred out of the State, was felicitated today for his service to the State administration.

The Chief Guest for the felicitation function that took place at Sahakar Sankul, Minister for Cooperation, Shri Subhash Shirodkar highlighted Shri Garg's contribution to the Co-operative movement in Goa. "He loved his work. He is very affectionate and positive which is rare to find in a high level of bureaucracy. Goodness comes from within you," said Shri Shirodkar.

Shri Shirodkar underscored the importance to imbibe a good work culture and lauded Shri Garg for his exemplary work culture and his inspiration to motivate people working with him.

The Chairperson of Goa State Co-operative Bank, Shri Ulhas Phaldessai, said that Shri Garg always had a positive attitude towards them whenever they approached him and said his aspiration to learn and enhance knowledge was something to learn from.

The Chairperson of Goa State Co-operative Union, Shri Shrikant Naik, recalled Shri Garg's humble, simple and cooperative approach.

A visibly emotional Shri Garg thanked the department for Co-operation for their teamwork and said working with them was like a family.

Earlier, the Registrar of Co-Operative Societies, Shri Arvind Khutkar in his welcome address highlighted the achievements of Shri Garg.

Assistant Registrar, Shri Rupesh Korde proposed the vote of thanks.
