

ARCHIVES WEEK CELEBRATION FROM JUNE 18, 2022

June 16, 2022

Jaishta 26, 1944

The Directorate of Archives and Archaeology has organized its annual Archives Week Exhibition from June 18, 2022 onwards. In this special Exhibition records related to Goa's Struggle for Freedom which is found in the TMT (Tribunal Militar Territorial) files will be exhibited in order to create awareness about Goa's Struggle for Freedom.

Chief Minister Dr. Pramod Sawant will inaugurate this exhibition on June 18, 2022 at 10.00 a.m. in the presence of Minister for Archives and Archaeology, Shri. Subhash Phal Dessai along with Minister for Revenue, Waste Management and Labour, Shri. Atanasio Monserrate.

The exhibition comprises of various pamphlets which were circulated by the various organizations and were confiscated by the Portuguese authorities from Freedom Fighters and were used as testimony to showcase their activities against the Portuguese regime and they were punished for this act.

Apart from this Archival Exhibition, on June 18, 2022 from 2.30 p.m. onward, All Goa inter-higher secondary Quiz Competition is organized by the Directorate on the final phase of Goa's Struggle for freedom, similarly, on June 19, 2022 from 9.30 a.m. onwards Drawing Competition is also organized for the school students on the topic "Goa's Struggle for freedom: Various personalities and Events".

On June 22, 2022 from 2.30 p.m. onwards, a Symposium titled 'Goan Nationalism' is organized at Sanskruti Bhavan Patto, Panaji. In which Prof. Varsha Kamat – Head, Department of History PES Ravi Naik College of Arts and Science, Farmagudi, Dr. Nishtha Desai, Former Assistant Professor, Manohar Parrikar School of Law, Governance and Public Policy – Goa University and Dr. Seema Risbud, Assistant Professor, D.D. Kosambi School of Social Sciences and Behavioural Studies – Goa University will be participating as Guest Lecturer.

DI/NB/AXP/SS/UH/2021/586

Issued by Department of Information & Publicity

Department of Information & Publicity
3rd Floor, Udyog Bhavan,
Near Azad Maidan, Panaji