

WORLD WATER & ENVIRONMENTAL DAY
TO BE CELEBRATED ON JUNE 3

Minister for Environment and Public Works, Shri. Nilesh Cabral will be the Chief Guest for World Water & Environmental day organized jointly by the Indian Water Works Association (IWWA) and Public Works Department, Govt of Goa. The function will be held on 3rd June at 4.30 pm in P.W.D. hall, Althino Panaji.

The Goa centre of IWWA has a membership of about 250 members, most of whom are engineering officers in the Public Works Department, Water Resources department Sewerage Corporation, Academics, and Industry Professionals.

Shri. Vilas Chouthai, a national recipient of “Rejuvenation of Agrani River in Sangali District” will deliver his address on this occasion.

The Public Health Engineering divisions of the Public Works Department who have worked tirelessly as front-line workers to supply water to the community during the difficult time of COVID 19 and floods will be felicitated on the occasion.

Shri. Uttam Parsekar, Principal Chief Engineer, PWD will be also grace the occasion.

Chairman of IWWA, Goa, Shri. Virkumar Sawant and Secretary, Shri. Satyesh Kakodkar has requested the engineering fraternity and water conservators to participate in this function.

--

Issued by Department of Information & Publicity

Department of Information & Publicity
3rd Floor, Udyog Bhavan,
Near Azad Maidan, Panaji