

V. M. SALGAONKAR COLLEGE OF LAW EXCELS AT STATE LEVEL QUIZ COMPETITION

August 17, 2022

Sravana 26, 1944

Students of V. M. Salgaonkar College of Law namely Mast. Sachin Panicker and Miss. Samrudhi Raut won the first Prize at the Inter Collegiate State level Quiz Competition organised by the Department Of Information and Publicity on the Theme 'India-1947 till date' as a part of ongoing Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav held in the city on the occasion of independence day.

Present on the occasion were Information Officer Shri. Prakash Naik, Assistant Information Officer, Shri. Shyam Gaonkar and QuizMaster Shri. Naguesh Sardesai.

Speaking as a Chief Guest Information Officer Shri. Prakash Naik complimented the winners of the competition. He said, in the past the department which is the nodal agency of the state government to disseminate information on various aspects had successfully organised quiz contests on various themes, including those aimed at propagating the message and spread awareness about welfare measures of the Government. Apart from making utmost use of various modes of communication Shri. Naik said, department strives to ensure that greater awareness is created about the achievements and schemes through traditional ways of disseminating information through such quiz contests, Street plays and outdoor publicity campaigns.

Shri. Naik said, In the past the department had evoked overwhelming response for the quiz contests, which provides much needed exposure and a platform to the students to exhibit their hidden talents, besides to get themselves enlightened with innovative knowledge on the theme of the contest.

The Information Officer further mentioned that, the quiz contest on the theme 'India 1947 till date' was organised to commemorate 75 years of India's Independence. He also spoke on 'Har Ghar Tiranga' Campaign an initiative of the Ministry of Culture, Government of India, aimed at inculcating a sense of Patriotism among the masses and their commitment to motherland India. He said, the unity in diversity which is prevailing in India, substantially helps to consolidate the bonds of Unity and fraternity among people of different faith resulting in strengthening national integration.

The Chief Guest later distributed the prizes to the winners of the Quiz Competition. Goa Medical College, Bambolim won the 2nd prize, DCTS Dhempe College Of Arts and Science, Panjim bagged the 3rd Prize, St. Xavier College, Mapusa and Goa College of Engineering Farmagudi won the fourth & fifth prize respectively.

Shri. Shyam Gaonkar, Assistant Information officer welcomed and also proposed the vote of thanks. Miss. Ranjana Malik, Information Assistant, compered.

DI/NB/PN/RM/UH/2022/778

--

Issued by Department of Information & Publicity

Department of Information & Publicity
3rd Floor, Udyog Bhavan,
Near Azad Maidan, Panaji