

“DHAROHAR”-WATER COLOR CAMP INAUGURATED

Panaji, September 12, 2022

Bhadra 21, 1944

Directorate of Art and Culture in collaboration with West Zone Cultural Centre, Udaipur has organised 6 days Water color camp-“Dharobar” from September 10 to 15, 2022.

Smt. Kiran Soni Gupta, Director, West Zone Cultural Centre, Udaipur along with the Director, Art and Culture, Shri Sagun R. Velip and Dy. Director , Art and Culture, Shri. Ashok Parab were present during the inauguration of the Water color camp.23 artists from different parts of India have participated in the camp.

Chief Guest , Smt. Kiran Soni Gupta stated that water color is a different expression compared to others, and artist can express himself truly through water colors. As water has a natural flow the work also takes its own flow and shape. She congratulated all the artists for being selected in this national level water color camp and gave best wishes to the artists. She also told about various style of expressions in art and how each has its own significance and differences.

Shri. Shagun R. Velip, Director, Directorate of Art and Culture stated that they have chosen 5-6 sites like Fountainhas, Panaji, Old Goa Church, Mahalaxmi temple, Tambdi Surla temple and some heritage sites etc to artists visits. He also welcomed all the artists and gave them best wishes for their stay and the work.

Dy. Director, Art and Culture, Shri, Ashok Parab gave formal welcome address and stated about the Dharohar water color camp starting from September 10 to 15, 2022. He also spoke about the long collaboration which the Art and Culture Department have with West Zone Cultural Centre, Udaipur. The artists will prepare four to five works during these six days.

The Dharobar camp was inaugurated by lighting the lamp and the kits were distributed to all the artists. Cultural organiser Smt. Siddhi Upadhaye compered the function where as Assistant Cultural Officer, Shri Siddhant Gaitonde proposed vote of thanks.

DI/NB/AXP/RM/GD/2022/871

--

Issued by Department of Information & Publicity

Department of Information & Publicity

3rd Floor, Udyog Bhavan,

Near Azad Maidan, Panaji