

MAMLATDAR OFFICE HOLDS DISASTER MANAGEMENT PROG

Panaji: October 21, 2022

The Deputy Collector along with Mamlatdar office Sanguem organised an awareness programme to create awareness among youth on disaster management at the Sanguem Municipality Hall in Sanguem, recently. The team of National Disaster Response Force (NDRF) participated and gave audio-visual live demonstrations and conducted other field related activities. They gave live demonstrations of various techniques such as administering first aid during injury, sudden cardiac arrest, rescue from water bodies etc. Around 100 NSS Volunteers and faculty members and officials of various departments participated.

Earlier, Mamlatdar of Sanguem Taluka, Shri Pravinjay Pandit spoke about the various kinds of disaster like flood, earthquake, industrial disasters etc. and requested the general public to learn the various methods/techniques disseminated during the programme in order to save lives. The Mamlatdar also requested the sarpanchas of various panchayats to constitute a Village Level Task Force comprising of youth volunteers, N.S.S, N.C.C Cadets etc to assist the Disaster Management team to rescue people in event of a disaster.

Smt. Seema S.S. Gudekar, Joint Mamlatdar of Sanguem Taluka proposed vote of thanks.
