

BE ALERT OF EXTERNAL ELEMENTS COMMITTING CRIMES : CM

Panaji : Nov. 9,2022

The Goa Police is improving its image every passing day and keeps itself abreast with technology to tackle all sorts of crimes. This outpost is not only an outpost but will be a police station where cases would be registered and people need not go elsewhere, stated the Chief Minister Dr Pramod Sawant after inaugurating a newly constructed building for Police Outpost at Betim Bardez today.

Shri Rohan Khaunte also graced the occasion.

Government strives to improve and develop adequate infrastructure and human resources in the State. Betim Police Out Post has a history. During the liberation movement Azad Gomantak Dal, a freedom fighters organization, attacked this outpost and had ransacked arms to fight against the Portuguese the Chief Minister informed.

The Chief Minister speaking further called upon the people to be alert about external elements committing crimes in the State. Crime detection in the State is about 90% which is not enough. Instead we have to endeavour to stop crime from happening.

MLA Saligao, Shri Kedar Naik appreciated the Police staff of Betim Out Post for its endeavour to maintain law and order thus ensuring safety of the people in this area.

DGP Shri Jaspal Singh, IPS also spoke on the occasion.
