

PILLAI URGES WRITERS TO CONTINUE THEIR WORK OF WRITING

April 26, 2023
Vaishakha 06, 1945

The Governor, Shri. P.S. Sreedharan Pillai appealed to the writers community to continue good work of writings to educate and enlighten the masses on various issues, satisfaction of which is enough to continue their good work of writing.

Governor, Shri P. S. Sreedharan Pillai attended the world book day celebrations function organized by Krishnadas Shama Goa State Central Library of Directorate of Art and Culture at Sanskriti Bhavan, Patto Panaji today.

Stressing on the writing skills, the Governor said, the book always helps to learn from others' experiences, he said, writing has the ability to showcase the unity of people and unity of our country to others. Give more opportunities to writers to create a bright future of our country, the Governor advised.

Speaking on the books written by Mahatma Gandhiji, he said Gandhiji was one of the best writers, having command of the English language, but he wrote most books in Gujarati language. He always used simple language in his literature, the Governor added.

Citing the examples of some of the great writers and their literature, the Governor maintained that only mother tongue helps to know the essence of literature. Freedom fighter Ram Manohar Lohia was a powerful speaker whose books are available at Raj Bhavan library, he added.

Present on the occasion Dr. Sushant Tandel, Curator, Krishnadas Shama Goa State Central Library, Smt. Sulaksha Kormule, Assistant State Librarian, Smt. Sindhu Damle, Programme Incharge.

Shri Sagun Velip, Director, Department of Art and Culture welcomed the guests and presented a book to the Governor as a token of love.
Smt. Sindhu Damle proposed a vote of thanks.
