PART I

1. Introduction:

Nursing education was started in Goa by the Portuguese during the 15th Century, the first of its kind in Asia as Curso de Emfermagem, Nursing Program at Santa Casa de Misericordia Hospital, Ribandar, Goa and at Hospicio de Sagrado Curacao de Maria at Margao-Goa (South Goa). The examining board was the Medical Surgical School, Panaji-Goa and the Escola Medico Cirurgica De Goa. After Liberation of Goa in 1961, the old nursing education programmes were gradually phased out and in its place, new nursing education programmes were started by the Government according to the Indian Nursing Council Regulations. The Auxiliary Nurse Midwives program was started in September, 1964 with technical assistance from WHO and other help from UNICEF. The Institute of Nursing Education functions as an independent unit under the Directorate of Health Services of Goa.

In 1982 the Auxiliary Nurses Midwife program was converted into Multipurpose Health Workers Program. From August, 2008 Multipurpose Health Worker's program was reverted to the ANM/FHW program. This program is recognized by the Indian Nursing Council (INC Act 1947) and Goa Nursing Council (Goa Act 23 of 2012).

The Administrative head of the Institute is Principal who is directly responsible to the Director of Health Services and through the Directorate to the Government of Goa. Students gain practical experience in the North Goa District Hospital - Mapusa, South Goa District Hospital - Margao, Sub-District Hospital - Ponda, Urban health centres, Primary health centres, Sub centres, and Health and wellness centres of the Directorate of Health Services.

2. Institutional Objectives:
