

ELECTION URGENT

No.19-2-2004-GAD/Part,
Government of Goa,
General Admn. Deptt.,
Secretariat, Porvorim.

Dated :- 09/01/2012

C I R C U L A R

The Election Commission of India has observed that various Departments have made appointments during the Election Model Code of Conduct in force and expressed displeasure over the same. The Election Commission of India has therefore insisted for the detailed report on the appointments made by the Department since 20th December, 2011 separately.

In furtherance to this, the Office of Chief Electoral Officer has issued certain directions vide their letter No.5-6-2011/Elect/2206 dated 04/01/2012, as under: -

- (i) Offer of appointments already issued prior to model code of conduct came into force but personal verification and medical examination is pending, issue of order of appointments shall not be given effect and that no newly appointed persons who have not yet joined, shall be allowed to join until Model Code of Conduct is lifted.
- (ii) Issue of pre-dated offer of appointments/ appointments orders shall not be permissible after announcement of model code of conduct, such orders already issued by the departments shall not be given effect until Model Code of Conduct is lifted.
- (iii) That all written test/interviews be kept on hold till Model Code in operation.

It is enjoined upon all the Secretaries/ Head of Departments to follow the contents of the directions issued by the Election Commission of India as listed above in letters and spirit and compliance reported within 03 days under intimation to this Department and with intimation to Election Department.
