

SUPREME SACRIFICES OF FREEDOM FIGHTERS NEEDS TO BE REMEMBERED: SHIRODKAR

Panaji: December 19, 2023

Water Resources Minister, Shri Subhash Shirodkar unfurled the tri colour at Quepem Government Sports Complex to mark the 62nd anniversary of Goa Liberation Day today.

While addressing the gathering Shri Shirodkar, stressed the need to recall the supreme sacrifices of the freedom fighters who sacrificed their life in the right spirit and from the heart. Every student should understand Liberation struggle he said.

In the last 62 years, Goa State has reached a high level in terms of development, but every Goemkar should try to achieve the peak progress, he urged. Every citizen's contribution is important in the development process. The state has made substantial progress in infrastructure, health, education, agriculture, industrial and other sectors and still has a lot to do Shri Shirodkar said. Human and society centered development is the goal of the government. By understanding the mind and feelings of the society as well as every family, the government is moving towards development. Working under the leadership of the Chief Minister with the passion for a self-sufficient Goa he said. Today's era is about quality education he said. Government encourages education in various ways.

State Government is striving hard to give the best to its people without any differences. Under the able leadership of Chief Minister, Dr Pramod Sawant State is moving forward. Government is streamlining administration to give the benefit of freedom to the people of the State. Liberation Day should just not be remembered as only the notional thing, he remarked.

Citizens of the State as well as nation are smart enough to take care of the young nation for the future of the nation. All should be focussed towards the issues which the State is facing. Each ones responsibility, willingness and determination is required to take the State forward. Extending his greetings of Liberation Day Shri Shirodkar urged the people to see the purpose of liberation movement and to ensure the State and Nation moves in right direction.

Earlier, Shri Shirodkar inspected the parade and took the salute presented by Police Contingent, Home Guard, NCC Cadets of Government College Quepem and various school groups. Police contingent was led by Police Sub Inspector, Shri Shivram Gawas and Shri Arun Andrew.

Chairperson, Quepem Municipal Council, Smt Suchita Shirwaikr; Councillor, Shri Prasad Phaldessai; Deputy Collector, Quepem, Smt Egna Cleetus, IAS; Mamlatdar, Quepem, Shri Prataprao Gaonkar; Police Inspector, Quepem, Shri Dipak Pednekar; Police Inspector, Curchorem, Shri Vaibhav Naik; Ex Minister, Shri Dominic Fernandes, Senior Government Officers from Quepem Taluka, Prominent citizens and large number of students attended the Liberation Day celebration.

Police Contingent, Home Guard, NCC Cadets of Government College Quepem and Students of Sarvodaya High School, Curchorem; CTN High School, Curchorem; Our Lady of Mother of the Poor High School, Tilamol; Don Bosco High School Sulcorna; Guardian Angel High School, Curchorem; Our Lady Perpetual Sucur Convent School, Kakoda; Holy Cross Institute, Quepem; New Educational Institute, Curchorem; Government High School Xeldem; Immaculate Conception High School, Avedem, Paroda took part in March past competition.

Pope John High School, Quepem and Smt Chandrabhaga Tukoba Naik High School, Curchorem took part in national integration singing competition. While Government Primary School, Cotta Amona; Borimol; Sarvodaya High School, Curchorem and Government High School Balli presented Cultural programme.

The programme was compered by Shri Pradip Shirwaikar.

DI/NB/PN/SS/2023/2137

--

Issued by the Department of Information & Publicity

Department of Information & Publicity,

Government of Goa,

Udyog Bhavan, Third Floor,
Near Azad Maidan,

Panaji – Goa.