

SPECIAL SUMMARY REVISION OF ELECTORAL ROLL

December 1, 2023

The Election Commission of India has announced Special Summary Revision of Electoral roll with respect to January 1, 2024 as qualifying date. The period of filling claims and objection is from October 27, 2023 till December 9, 2023.

The Election Commission of India is holding constant review meeting with CEO of all states for disposal of forms received during Special Summary Revision. The CEO office is also constantly reviewing status of disposal of forms on daily basis by holding meetings with both DEO's and ERO's of all 40 Assembly Constituencies. The pendency in disposal of forms has been discussed by the CEO with both the DEO's and ERO's in details, the technical issues have been raised to the Election Commission of India.

The Chief Electoral Officer Goa has issued the instruction to both the DEO's and ERO's of all 40 Assembly Constituencies to dispose of the forms received during Special Summary Revision on a timely manner, on daily basis.

The Government has also approved the proposal for relieving of full time Booth Level Officers to complete the pendency in process of the forms received during the ongoing Special Summary Revision. Thus all BLO's will now work for form processing in upcoming days and it will help a major to resolve all the issues.

CEO Goa and both the DEO's have urge all the eligible voters especially all 18+ young voters to register during this Special Summary Revision – 2024 to show their duty towards their Nation.
