

CM DR SAWANT VISITS GOA PAVILION
Pavilion receives tremendous response

Panaji, November 25, 2024

Chief Minister, Dr Pramod Sawant today visited the Goa Pavilion set up at the India International Trade Fair, 2024 which has been receiving tremendous response from the general public for Goa's rich cultural heritage and local handicrafts.

The Chief Minister on his arrival at the Pavilion was received by Information Officer, Shri Kiran Munankar and proprietors of Mirchi Republic media, Shri Aryan Khedekar and Shri Sanman Kenkre. Dr Sawant was given a warm traditional welcome along with Goan fugdi traditional dance.

Dr Sawant complimenting the Department of Information and Publicity, and other line Departments for showcasing the 'Swayampurna Goem' concept of making people and the State self-reliant urged to support the Prime Minister of India for realising his dreams of making India 'Viksit Bharat 2047'. The Chief Minister suggested presenting more products under the 'Make in Goa' concept so that Goan products derive benefit at national and international market. The Chief Minister taking the perfect presentation of the rich Goan cultural heritage of Goa along with its development at the pavilion underscored the need to portray it in the right perspective to the people across the world.

The Chief Minister also encouraged the artisans at the Goa Pavilion for their efforts in bringing the Goan products to the people including the hospitality being projected and efforts made towards promoting Goa as an international tourist's destination and to boost industrial growth and tourism activity in Goa in a big way.

The Goa State Innovation Council which has been displaying and providing demos on various robotics techniques to transform their ideas into successful startup's also received tremendous response from youth that have been visiting the pavilion.

The Goan Cultural troupe also engaged the crowd while performing Dekni dance bringing in a true Goan feeling among the crowd and was much appreciated.

The people were later handed over with gift hampers as a token of love at the hands of Information Officers, Shri Allwyn Pereira and Shri Kiran Munankar.

The pavilion has been conceptualized, designed, erected and managed by M/s Mirchi Republic Media.
