

STREET VENDORS TRAINED ON FOOD HYGIENE

Panjim, November 29, 2024
Agrahayana 8, 1946

The Directorate of Food and Drugs Administration (FDA), in association with National Street Vendors Association of India have launched the third phase of training of street food vendors in the State of Goa.

As a part of the inaugural session, 50 vendors operating near GMC Bambolim and in the Panjim area were trained and provided FOSTAC certificates.

Smt. Shweta Dessai Director FDA, Shri Richard Noronha Designated Officer FDA, Shri Shanjay Bhandari, Head Corporate Affairs Nestle and Smt. Sangeeta Singh Head NASVI. Were present for the inaugural session.

Street food is an integral part of the food ecosystem of Goa and caters to a large population including both locals and tourists hence it is imperative to ensure that the vendors are educated to handle food in a hygienic manner. With this motto, the FDA shall train 500 vendors across the State in the next two months.
