

GOVERNOR GREET TEACHING COMMUNITY ON TEACHER DAY

Panaji : September 04, 2025

The Governor, P Ashok Gajapathi Raju extended his heartfelt greetings and best wishes to all teachers and educators who dedicate their lives to shaping the future of our society on the occasion of Teachers' Day "This day marks the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, an illustrious philosopher and statesman whose vision of education as a means to build a just and enlightened society remains profoundly relevant" the Governor added.

The Governor further said, Teachers are the true nation-builders. They not only impart knowledge but also instill values, inspire curiosity, and nurture the character of their students. In today's rapidly changing world, their role is even more significant as they guide young minds to embrace innovation, uphold ethical values, and become responsible citizens. As India marches towards the goal of Viksit Bharat @2047, the contribution of teachers will be pivotal in creating a generation that is skilled, compassionate, and future-ready. The foundation of a developed nation rests on the strength of its education system and the dedication of its teachers" the Governor added.

Deeply appreciating and commending the tireless efforts of teachers in nurturing talent and shaping young minds, the Governor said, "May your work continue to enlighten and empower generations to come. Happy Teachers' Day!
