

AWARENESS REGARDING RECRUITMENT OF GPSC

Panaji: October 13, 2025

GPSC appeals to the citizens to join Government service. The Goa Public Service Commission (GPSC) is a constitutional body established under Article 315 of the Constitution of India. It plays a pivotal role in the recruitment and promotion of Group 'A' and 'B' officers of the State.

The GPSC conducts examinations and interviews to recruit candidates for various posts in the Government of Goa. This includes direct recruitment from the open market and promotion from lower grades.

Candidates are selected based on their performance in CBRT, written tests, practical test, physical test, group discussions and interviews. The Commission ensures that the selection process is fully transparent and merit based.

GPSC is committed to maintain high standards of integrity and efficiency in the recruitment process, ensuring that the best candidates are selected to serve the State of Goa.

The advertisements are published on website of the GPSC and local dailies inviting candidates to apply online. GPSC advertises posts every 2nd Friday of month. The details are published on website <https://gpsc.goa.gov.in> Candidates have to apply online as per their eligibility to the vacancies published by GPSC on website.
