

CHIEF MINISTER EXTENDS WARM CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

Panaji: December 24, 2025

The Chief Minister of Goa, Dr. Pramod Sawant extends warm Christmas greetings to the people of Goa, especially the Christian brethren on this joyous occasion of Christmas.

In his message, the Chief Minister said that Christmas is a celebration of peace, goodwill, compassion, and hope - values that strengthen the social fabric of Goa. He highlighted that the teachings of Lord Jesus Christ continue to inspire humanity to walk the path of kindness, humility, and service to others. He urged people to embrace these values not only during the festive season but throughout the year, fostering a sense of unity and mutual respect among all communities in Goa.

The Chief Minister emphasised that Goa has always been known for peaceful coexistence. He urged citizens to continue nurturing these cherished values by promoting understanding, respect and unity across all sections of society. "Let the spirit of Christmas remind us to live with love and harmony, and to uphold the unique bonds that make Goa a model of peaceful living," he said.

He further called upon the people of Goa to join the Government in its on-going efforts to drive development and progress across the State. The Chief Minister noted that public cooperation is essential for the successful implementation of various developmental initiatives aimed at improving infrastructure, enhancing public services, empowering youth, and ensuring sustainable growth.

The Chief Minister wished every Goan a blessed and joyful Christmas. "May the festive season bring happiness, harmony, and renewed hope to every home. May it inspire us all to contribute positively to the progress and wellbeing of our beloved Goa," the Chief Minister Concluded.
