

CM EXTENDS GREETINGS ON NEW YEAR

Panaji: December 31, 2025

The Chief Minister, Dr. Pramod Sawant has extended warm greetings and best wishes to the people of the State on the joyous occasion of the New Year. He expressed hope that the coming year will usher in peace, prosperity, good health, and happiness to every Goan.

In his message, Dr. Sawant appealed to the citizens to continue supporting the Government's efforts in effectively implementing various welfare schemes and development initiatives across the State. He emphasized that the collective cooperation of the people is essential to accelerate growth, strengthen public services, and ensure that the benefits of development reach all sections of society.

Reaffirming the Government's commitment to creating a resilient and progressive Goa, the Chief Minister urged Goans to actively participate in the Swayampurna Goa mission and strive towards greater self-reliance. He noted that the initiative aims to empower individuals, communities, and local governance structures, fostering sustainable livelihoods and enhancing overall quality of life.

Acknowledging Goa's long-standing legacy of peace, unity, and coexistence, Dr. Sawant called upon the people to uphold the State's cherished tradition of religious harmony, mutual respect, and collective well-being. He noted that this spirit of togetherness is one of Goa's greatest strengths and must continue to shine in the year ahead.

The Chief Minister concluded by expressing confidence that with continued public cooperation, self-reliance, and shared commitment to harmony, Goa will stride forward on the path of inclusive and progressive development.
