

Goa-Themed Pavilion Steals the Spotlight at Bharat Parv 2026, New Delhi

Panaji: January 31, 2026

The Goa-themed Pavilion at Bharat Parv 2026, being held at the historic Red Fort, New Delhi, has emerged as one of the major crowd-pullers of the festival, attracting an overwhelming response from visitors, trade delegates, and tourism professionals from across the country.

Designed to showcase the vibrant spirit, rich heritage, and scenic beauty of Goa, the pavilion is witnessing heavy footfall throughout the day. The specially curated “Goa Pavilion Selfie Point” has become a major attraction, with visitors enthusiastically lining up to capture memorable moments against visually striking Goan-themed backdrops reflecting beaches, culture, and traditional architecture.

A key highlight drawing food lovers in large numbers is the Goan Food Stall, which is receiving an exceptional response from visitors and food enthusiasts. The aroma and taste of authentic Goan cuisine have made the stall one of the most visited food destinations at Bharat Parv 2026. Popular delicacies such as Fish Curry Rice, Chicken Xacuti, Chicken Cafreal, along with other traditional Goan dishes, are delighting visitors and offering them an authentic taste of Goa. The food stall is playing a vital role in promoting Goa’s rich culinary heritage on a national platform.

The pavilion is also attracting significant interest from trade and tourism representatives, who are keen to explore Goa’s tourism offerings and collaboration opportunities. Informative displays and promotional materials highlighting Goa’s tourism potential have further enhanced visitor engagement.

Adding to the vibrant atmosphere are the lively cultural performances, which are drawing large crowds and receiving enthusiastic applause. Traditional Goan dance and music performances are captivating audiences and providing an immersive cultural experience, effectively bringing the festive spirit of Goa to the heart of the national capital.

Visitors have widely appreciated the authentic presentation, cultural richness, flavorful cuisine, and engaging performances of the Goa Pavilion, making it one of the most talked-about attractions at Bharat Parv 2026. The continuous footfall and positive response reaffirm Goa’s strong appeal as a preferred cultural and tourism destination.
