

TRAINING PROGRAM ON HEALTH AND SAFETY HELD

Panaji, January 29, 2026

The Inspectorate of Factories and Boilers, Altinho, organised a two-day training programme on Health and Safety recently for employees from various industries. As the health and safety of employees is a top priority, such training programmes play a vital role in creating awareness and strengthening the effective implementation of safety practices at the workplace.

The training programme focused on practical aspects of occupational health and safety and aimed to keep participants updated on best practices, safety standards, and real-life application. The sessions were conducted by subject experts Shri Kaushal Phal Dessai, Shri Arjun Gawas, Shri Santosh Shinde, and Shri Suresh Sabnis, who shared their expertise and insights with the participants.
