

HOME DEPARTMENT OPENS FINAL JOB REGISTRATION FOR CHILDREN OF FREEDOM FIGHTERS

Panaji: March 13, 2026

The Home Department has announced final opportunity for the children of freedom fighters to register under the scheme for providing employment in Government to the children of Freedom fighters, first introduced in 2013.

The Home Department had notified the "Scheme for providing employment in Government to the Children of Freedom Fighters" in the year 2013. Under the said scheme all eligible children of freedom fighters registered with Home department were sponsored for employment in various Government departments.

However it has been noticed that some Children of Freedom Fighters (CFF) could not get themselves registered under the scheme in 2013 due to various reasons. As a last time opportunity, Home Department has decided to open a special window for registration of Children of only those Freedom Fighters who are already registered with Home Department.

All, such Children of Freedom Fighters are requested to approach Home Department(General), Secretariat, Porvorim alongwith Freedom Fighter Certificate of either Father or Mother, to collect application forms for registration under the scheme from March 17, 2026 to March 31, 2026. Duly filled application form shall be submitted to the Home Department, Secretariat, Porvorim on or before April 06, 2026.

Applications received after stipulated date will not be entertained and this may be treated as final opportunity for registration under the Scheme.
