

GOVERNOR EXTENDS EASTER GREETINGS

Panaji: April 04, 2026

The Governor of Goa, Shri Pusapati Ashok Gajapathi Raju has extended his warm greetings and heartfelt wishes to all the people of Goa, particularly the Christian brethren on the joyous occasion of "Easter".

The Governor in his message said that, “the celebration of Easter commemorates the glorious resurrection of Jesus Christ, the Apostle of Peace, on the third day after his crucifixion. Easter is a sacred and significant festival that symbolizes hope, renewal, and the triumph of life over adversity. It reminds us of the values of compassion, forgiveness, and faith, which are essential in building a harmonious and inclusive society”, the Governor added.

“On this auspicious occasion, let us reaffirm our commitment to walk on the path shown by Jesus Christ and uphold the values that bind us together, striving for the continued progress and prosperity of our State, Happy and Blessed Easter to everyone” the Governor concluded.
