

GOVERNOR EXTENDS GREETINGS ON VISHU

Panaji, 13 April 2026

Governor of Goa Shri. Pusapati Ashok Gajapathi Raju has extended greetings and warm wishes to the people of Goa, particularly the Keral brethren and other Keralites all over the world on the auspicious occasion of Vishu.

Governor in his message said that, Vishu symbolizes prosperity, hope and new beginnings. The sacred tradition of Vishukkani reminds us of the importance of positivity, gratitude and the belief that a good beginning paves the way for a fruitful year ahead.

This vibrant festival celebrated with devotion and enthusiasm, strengthens our cultural heritage and reinforces the values of unity, harmony and compassion.

“On this joyous occasion, I urge all people to renew their commitment to building a progressive and inclusive society while cherishing our rich traditions” Governor added.

‘May this auspicious festival usher in happiness, prosperity and new beginnings in every one and strengthen the bonds of unity and cultural harmony among all.’ Governor concluded.
