

Offer Letters Issued to 126 PSI Candidates, Strengthening Goa Police Force
“Recruitment carried out through a fully transparent process,” says CM Dr.
Pramod Sawant

Panaji: May 30, 2026

The Goa Police force is set to get 126 new PSI recruits as offer letters were issued to selected candidates under the Staff Selection Commission recruitment process. The selected batch comprises 121 male and 5 female candidates, who will undergo training in Delhi before formally joining service.

The programme witnessed the formal distribution of offer letters to the selected candidates as part of the recruitment drive aimed at strengthening the State police machinery. The newly selected PSI candidates will now proceed for structured training in Delhi before their induction into active service in Goa Police.

Speaking on the occasion, Chief Minister Dr. Pramod Sawant congratulated the selected candidates and stated that the recruitment process has been conducted in a fully transparent and merit-based manner under the Staff Selection Commission. He emphasized that this process reflects the government’s commitment to fair opportunities for the youth of Goa.

Dr. Sawant further said that the selected PSI candidates carry a major responsibility as they will serve directly for the people of Goa. He urged them to work with discipline, dedication and integrity, keeping public service as their highest priority and maintaining the trust of citizens.

CM also reiterated that the establishment of the Staff Selection Commission was aimed at ensuring transparent and merit-based recruitment across sectors. He highlighted the importance of skill development and encouraged youth to prepare for competitive examinations such as the Goa Public Service Commission (GPSC) and Goa Staff Selection Commission (GSSC).

The programme concluded with the formal handing over of offer letters to the selected candidates, marking an important step in their journey towards joining the Goa Police force.

The event was held in the presence of Dr. V. Candavelou, IAS, Chief Secretary; Shri Alok Kumar, Director General of Police; Shri K. R. Chaurasia, IPS, Inspector General of Police along with senior police and government officials.
