

GOVERNOR EXTENDS BEST WISHES ON DURGA PUJA

Panaji: October 16, 2026

On the auspicious occasion of Durga Puja, Governor Pusapati Ashok Gajapathi Raju has extended his warmest greetings and best wishes to all the people of Goa.

In his message, the Governor said, “Durga Puja is a celebration of the victory of good over evil, righteousness over injustice and truth over falsehood. The worship of Maa Durga, the embodiment of strength, courage, compassion and divine grace, reminds us of the power within each of us to face challenges with determination and overcome adversity with faith and perseverance”.

The Governor further said, “On this blessed occasion, let us reaffirm our commitment to the values of peace, unity, tolerance and human dignity. May the divine blessings of Maa Durga empower us to work towards the welfare and progress of our society and inspire us to extend kindness and compassion to those in need.

The Governor said, “May Maa Durga bless us all with the strength and wisdom to overcome every challenge and guide us towards a brighter, peaceful and prosperous future. May her divine blessings bring happiness, good health, peace and prosperity to each and everyone”.
