Order

21/8/2012-HD(G)

Ref.: Notification No. 2/1/2001-HD(G) dated 25-5-2012 published in Official Gazette, Series I No. 9 dated 31-5-2012.

The Government vide Notification referred above had revised the payment of casino fees. However, in order to remove doubts in the matter, the Government of Goa hereby issues clarification/guidelines as under:—

1. The Annual Recurring Fees (ARF) notified vide Notification No. 2/1/2001-HD(G) dated 25-05-2012 is effective only from the date on which it is due, to be collected/paid.

2. Those who do not pay on the due date, the licensing authority shall issue 'stop operations' orders. Upon such intimation, the Commercial Tax Department shall stop issuing coupons/entry tickets to defaulting casinos. A suitable notice shall be put on the website of Commercial Taxes and Secretariat alongwith press announcements to warn the public.

3. The operations of a defaulting casino can be resumed with effect from the date of payment of ARF and the operations can be carried out by such casino for the next one year period w.e.f. date of payment of ARF, provided that the licence issued to the casino is valid during the period of operations. Otherwise, the ARF shall be paid for the remaining period of licence proportionately. While calculating the proportionate fees, periods less than a month shall be treated as a whole month.

4. Those casinos which did not make payments on the due date prior to issue of notification No. 2/1/2001-HD(G) dated 25-05-2012, they shall stop all operations forthwith and the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes shall not issue coupons/entry tickets to such defaulting casinos.

They are liable for forfeiture of their security deposit also.

They shall be allowed to resume their operations provided:

- (i) their licence is valid or renewed.
- (ii) fresh security deposit is paid.
- (iii) deposit the ARF at the revised rates.

5. The land based casinos shall be allowed to pay the ARF in quarterly installments during current financial year only, subject to condition that ARF paid quarterly are always in advance and are paid with 12% interest for delayed part of payment.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.

Neetal P. Amonkar, Under Secretary (Home).
