District-Level Viksit Bharat Youth Parliament 2026 organised by MY Bharat South Goa

November 7, 2026

Mera Yuva Bharat (MY Bharat), South Goa, under the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, successfully organised the District-Level Viksit Bharat Youth Parliament 2026 at the Institute of Nursing Education, Hospicio, South Goa District Hospital, Margao, today. The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from approximately 200 young participants.

The programme was graced by the Union Minister of State for Power and New and Renewable Energy, Shri Shripad Yesso Naik, as the Chief Guest. His presence inspired the young participants to actively engage in discussions on matters of national importance, democratic governance and nation-building.

The central theme of the Youth Parliament was “One Nation, One Election.” The programme provided a platform for young people to understand the concept, discuss its potential implications and express their views on electoral reforms, democratic processes, governance and national development. Participants actively engaged in parliamentary-style deliberations, showcasing their knowledge, confidence, communication skills and commitment to responsible citizenship.

The initiative was organised under the broader vision of Viksit Bharat @2047, which aims to encourage youth participation in nation-building and develop informed, responsible and empowered citizens. Through such initiatives, young people are encouraged to understand democratic institutions, constitutional values and their responsibilities as citizens of the country.

The programme was attended by Dr. Ana Maria Vaz De Braganca, Principal, Institute of Nursing Education, South Goa District Hospital, Margao, and Dr. Govind Desai, Senior Chest Physician, South Goa District Hospital. Their presence and support highlighted the important role of educational and healthcare institutions in promoting youth leadership, awareness and social responsibility.

Representing MY Bharat Goa State, Shri Samyek Meshram, Assistant Director, MY Bharat, Goa State, coordinated and facilitated the programme. He highlighted the role of MY Bharat in connecting young people with opportunities for experiential learning, leadership development, community participation and nation-building.

Mera Yuva Bharat (MY Bharat) is an autonomous organisation under the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, established to empower young people and provide them with opportunities to participate in nation-building activities. Through initiatives such as the Viksit Bharat Youth Parliament, MY Bharat seeks to strengthen democratic values, leadership qualities, public speaking skills and constructive engagement among young citizens.

The programme concluded with a renewed commitment to encourage youth participation in democratic processes and inspire young people to become active contributors to the vision of Viksit Bharat @2047.
